IRC Report to Securityholders
Portland Investment Counsel Inc.
August 15, 2025

Dear Investor:

The members of the independent review committee (“IRC”) of the funds listed in Schedule “A” (collectively, the “Funds” and individually, a “Fund”) managed by Portland Investment Counsel Inc. (“Portland” or the “Manager”) are pleased to submit their report to Securityholders of the Funds for the financial year ended June 30, 2025.

I continue to act as Chair of the IRC. Together with my colleagues, Simon Lewis and Evelyn Foo, the IRC has specific expertise in a variety of areas, including investment funds, finance, accounting and law as well as extensive general business experience. Effective January 1, 2025, Evelyn Foo replaced Richard White. Richard was a valued member and we thank him for his thoughtful and wise counsel.

Securities regulators have given the IRC a mandate to review mutual fund conflict of interest matters which are identified and referred to the IRC by the Manager and to consider and, depending upon the nature of such matter, to approve or provide recommendations as appropriate. In addition, the Manager may request that the IRC also review conflict of interest matters for investment funds that are not subject to NI 81-107. The IRC’s primary focus is to assess whether the Manager’s proposed action achieves a fair and reasonable result for the Fund with respect to conflict of interest matters.

In addition, the IRC is required to review, assess and report to the Manager, at least once a year, as to the adequacy and effectiveness of the policies and procedures relating to conflict of interest matters in respect of the Funds and to conduct a self-assessment of the IRC’s independence and effectiveness. The IRC is also required to set reasonable compensation and proper expenses of its members after considering, among other things, the Manager’s recommendations and to reassess its compensation and expenses on an annual basis. These matters are included in the Annual Report, which follows.

We continue to enjoy an excellent working relationship with Portland in serving the interests of the Funds and the investors.

“David J. Sharpless”

At least annually, the IRC will review its compensation giving consideration to the following:

1. the nature, number and complexity of the Funds;
2. the nature and extent of the workload of each member of the IRC, including the commitment of time and energy of each member;
3. Portland's recommendation;
4. industry best practices, including industry averages and surveys on compensation paid to the IRCs of Canadian investment funds; and
5. the best interests of the Funds.

For 2025, the IRC has set reasonable compensation and proper expenses for its members. No indemnities were paid to the IRC by the Funds during the period.

In each of the above cases, the IRC gave Portland Standing Instructions to take the actions proposed by Portland on the condition that Portland comply with the policies and procedures and report periodically, at least annually, to the IRC describing Portland's compliance with the policies and procedures.

The IRC is not aware of any instance in which Portland acted in a conflict of interest matter for which the IRC did not give a positive recommendation. The IRC is not aware of any instance in which Portland acted in a conflict of interest matter but did not meet a condition imposed by the IRC in its recommendation. Portland has an obligation to notify the IRC of any such instance.
