4. Client Name Accounts Pre-Authorized Banking Instructions (Not required for nominee accounts)

You hereby authorize us to draw funds from your bank account and process investments as listed above. These funds are to be drawn against your bank account as specified herein. If this is for your own personal investment, your debit will be considered a Personal Pre-Authorized Debit (PAD) by Canadian Payments Association definition. If this investment is for business purposes, it will be considered a Business PAD. You may revoke the PAC PAD at any time, with a minimum of 15 days notice, by contacting your advisor or client services. You, depending on the context, have certain recourse rights if any debit does not comply with this agreement. For example you have the right to receive reimbursement for any debit that is not authorized or is not consistent with this PAD agreement. To obtain more information on your recourse rights, contact your financial institution or visit www.cdnpay.ca.
